

Which item doesn't belong?

Some supermarkets are choosing to no longer sell tobacco products. They realize tobacco doesn't support the health of their customers and community. Other supermarkets continue to sell tobacco products.

Ask your supermarket to stop selling tobacco products.

Tobacco sales and tobacco advertising in grocery stores:

- Encourage kids to start smoking; and
- Interfere with smokers' efforts to quit.

I am a customer at your store. Please join the growing number of grocery stores that are putting the health of their customers before profits. Please stop selling tobacco products.
